Observaciones: (motivación, participación y puntos destacables del progreso)

David showed good engagement in his learning process during this program.

He always came prepared for every session showing that he took the time to prepare and do the activities in the units.

His participation during the session was good and consistent expressing his ideas freely using complete sentences.

He has improved the quality of his sentences expressing his ideas with more accuracy and fluency along with an improvement in grammar.

Sugerencias: (objetivos a corto y medio plazo, puntos destacables a mejorar)

David can focus on continuing to learn new words and phrases to incorporate them into his personal vocabulary.

He can accomplish this by choosing short articles of his interest in English so he can read them and identify unfamiliar words. Then he can look them up in a dictionary, learn their correct meaning, and practice making some sentences with them. In this way, he will increase his vocabulary and can use the new words and phrases to express his ideas more fluently when speaking English.

He can also get the audio recordings of these articles and listen to them to learn and memorize the pronunciation and the way sentences are said so he can practice saying them in the same way he is hearing them.
